Savannah International Boat Show Partners with America's Second Harvest Coastal Georgia Food Bank to Make a Difference

Savannah, GA- Show producers of the Savannah International Boat Show are encouraging donations of canned goods to benefit America's Second Harvest Coastal Georgia Food Bank. "We hope that the Show can make a difference by helping families in need. We typically get an attendance of 8-11,000 people at the Show. If everyone brings 5 canned goods, we can help a lot of families," says Show producer and president of JBM & Associates, Jacqui Bomar. "We are offering $2 off admission for all who participate in this mission," adds Bomar.

The 8th annual Savannah International Boat Show will be held at the Savannah International Trade and Convention Center in Savannah, GA from Friday, February 26 – Sunday, February 28th. Hours are Friday: 12-6pm; Saturday: 10am-6pm; Sunday: 11am-5pm. Tickets are $8 for adults, free for children under 12. Bring 5 canned goods to benefit the America's Second Harvest Coastal Georgia Food Bank and receive $2 off admission.

Parking is $5 at the Trade Center, or ride the ferry from River Street for free.

Now in its eighth year, The Savannah International Boat Show is a fun family event for all boating and fishing enthusiasts. Not only will there be boats and marine products for sale, but also many interactive events for those interested in sailing and fishing.

Attendees will have the opportunity to speak with the region's top boat dealers and manufacturers and get a close up view of hundreds of boats. "This is the best time to buy a boat! With low prices from the dealers, on top of manufacturer's incentives, we expect to see a lot of boats sold at this year's Show," says Bomar.
